Hi Ron,

Please let me know when you are available, I would like to get the four of us on a call, others at EPA too if you like, to discuss the infographic. I may be missing something but I really think we are aligned with our messaging with the measurement group but approaching from a very different perspective and audience. Would like to get a better understanding of the concerns and look at alternative strategies for messaging in time for ARD 2019.

Thanks,

Randy
